

SMART OFFICE SUPPORT™

Intellectual Property & Licensing Agreement

Effective Date: October 23, 2026

Smart Office Support™, Lucidity ONE™, Organizational Reconciliation™, Continuity State™, and all associated frameworks, methodologies, operating models, documentation, concepts, graphics, processes, training materials, and related intellectual property ("Licensed Materials") are proprietary works owned exclusively by Precision AI and its affiliates ("Licensor").

By accessing, viewing, downloading, receiving, licensing, discussing, implementing, or otherwise using any portion of the Licensed Materials, you acknowledge and agree to the terms of this Agreement.

1. Ownership

All Licensed Materials remain the exclusive intellectual property of the Licensor.

No ownership rights are transferred by publication, disclosure, demonstration, licensing, consultation, training, or use of the Licensed Materials.

All rights not expressly granted are reserved.

2. Limited License

The Licensor grants a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable license solely for evaluation, education, internal review, and authorized implementation as expressly approved by the Licensor.

No other rights are granted.

3. Intellectual Property Protection

The following are protected intellectual property, whether registered or unregistered:

- Smart Office Support™
- Associated frameworks
- Associated methodologies
- Associated diagrams
- Associated architectures
- Associated processes
- Associated terminology
- Associated training materials
- Associated visual representations
- Associated documentation

Protection extends to the organization, sequence, structure, architecture, relationships, workflows, terminology, and presentation of the Licensed Materials.

4. Prohibited Uses

Without prior written authorization from the Licensor, no person or organization may:

Copy

Copy, duplicate, reproduce, store, record, publish, distribute, transmit, share, or otherwise reproduce the Licensed Materials.

Modify

Alter, revise, adapt, enhance, restructure, translate, expand, reduce, merge, or modify the Licensed Materials.

Create Derivative Works

Create derivative works, extensions, adaptations, spin-offs, variants, successor frameworks, successor methodologies, or related systems based upon the Licensed Materials.

Rebrand or Rename

Rebrand, rename, relabel, repackage, market, promote, or present the Licensed Materials under another name, identity, trademark, service mark, framework, methodology, process, product, or business offering.

Reverse Engineer

Analyze, deconstruct, reverse engineer, benchmark, replicate, mimic, clone, or recreate the Licensed Materials for commercial, competitive, consulting, educational, or development purposes.

Commercialize

Sell, license, sublicense, market, distribute, offer consulting services, training services, software products, methodologies, or commercial offerings derived from the Licensed Materials.

5. No Derivative Frameworks

The Licensee acknowledges that substantial value exists not only in individual components but also in the overall architecture, structure, relationships, terminology, methodology, organization, sequencing, and implementation of the Licensed Materials.

No person or organization may create, publish, distribute, market, license, or commercialize any framework, methodology, process, operating model, training program, software platform, consulting service, or organizational system derived from the Licensed Materials, whether modified, renamed, expanded, abbreviated, translated, or otherwise altered.

6. No Implied Rights

Publication of concepts, articles, diagrams, presentations, website content, white papers, training materials, videos, demonstrations, or educational content does not grant any right to:

- Copy the framework
- Implement the framework
- Reproduce the framework
- Adapt the framework
- Rename the framework
- Create derivative works
- Commercialize the framework

Any rights must be expressly granted in writing by the Licensor.

7. Attribution

Authorized users shall maintain all copyright notices, trademark notices, proprietary notices, ownership notices, and attribution statements.

Removal or alteration of such notices is strictly prohibited.

8. Confidentiality

Where proprietary or non-public information is provided to a Licensee, the Licensee shall maintain the confidentiality of such information and shall not disclose it to any third party without written authorization.

9. Enforcement

Unauthorized reproduction, modification, derivative development, rebranding, renaming, publication, disclosure, distribution, or commercialization of the Licensed Materials shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

The Licensor reserves all rights and remedies available under applicable law.

10. Injunctive Relief

The Licensee acknowledges that unauthorized use of the Licensed Materials may result in irreparable harm.

The Licensor shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, equitable relief, monetary damages, attorney fees where permitted, and all other remedies available under applicable law.
